WHIGS OF THE UNITED STATES!

THE compiler respectfully submits this little Manual as a first attempt to disseminate, in the cheapest and most eligible form for extensive circulation, a few of the more important and interesting facts touching the great political struggle of the times. If this effort shall be approved, it will be followed up hereafter in the same spirit, but with different materials. The primary purpose of this is to exhibit in the clearest manner the great accessions to the Whig cause which the past year has witnessed, and the succession of brilliant triumphs it has rapidly achieved. To effect this object, nothing further than a fair comparison of the votes of the last and present years has been found necessary. If the Whig party is not now 'THE DEMOCRACY OF NUMBERS,' then there is no truth in figures, or reliance on official returns. Let this glorious truth be every where proclaimed, until it shall be firmly imprinted on the public mind, and the effect will be most salutary.

The tables of popular votes have been compiled with care from the best attainable sources, and may in most cases be implicitly relied on. Some imperfections were unavoidable, especially in the returns of the more recent elections. These are in all cases acknowledged on the face of the statement. The labor required [illegible]n much greater than would be imagined, and errors in [illegible]oing are possible; but the general correctness and fairness [illegible]exhibit will not be questioned.

[illegible]gs of New York—of the North—of the Union! If our [illegible]e effort shall seem worthy of your countenance, we ask [illegible]l in disseminating this little messenger through every town [illegible]lage of the country. We ask this with a confidence that [illegible]d cause will be strengthened by your compliance, and that [illegible]'ll not solicit in vain.

[illegible]ork, November 1, 1837.

THE AMERICAN WHIG PARTY

Was formed in the spring of 1834, by a union, so far as their common objects and views seemed imperatively to dictate, of all those who condemned the most arbitrary and unconstitutional Removal of the Deposites or Public Treasure by General Jackson, from the one safe, advantageous, and proper depository designated by law, into forty or fifty State Banks. That reckless and most indefensible measure—which lies at the foundation of all our subsequent commercial, financial, and general calamities—necessarily gave rise to an intense political excitement, and to a new organization of parties, in which was partially merged all former distinctions. The Whig party comprised,

1. Most of those who, under the name of National Republicans, had previously been known as supporters of Adams and Clay, and advocates of 'the American System.'

2. Most of those who, acting in defence of what they deemed the assailed or threatened rights of the States, had been stigmatized as Nullifiers, or the less virulent, State Rights men, who were thrown into a position of armed neutrality towards the Administration by the doctrines of the Proclamation of 1832 against South Carolina.

3. A majority of those before known as Anti-Masons.

4. Many who had up to that time been known as Jackson men, but who united in condemning the high-handed conduct of the Executive, the immolation of Duane, and the subserviency of Taney.

5. Numbers who had not before taken any part in politics; but who were now awakened from their apathy by the palpable usurpations of the Executive, and the imminent peril of our whole fabric of constitutional liberty and national prosperity.

Such was the origin and constitution of the Whig party. The name was chosen as expressing briefly and pointedly the great object and basis of the party—Resistance to usurpation, misrule, and despotism.

The Whig party is neither the nor a Bank party. Most of its members are indeed friendly to honestly conducted banks, and a well regulated Banking System. A majority of them probably deem a National Bank, or some other national issue, or regulation of the issue, of paper money, highly desirable to ensure a sound currency, equalize exchanges, and restore prosperity. There are Whigs, however, who deny all this, as well as Van Buren men who concur in it. The subject of Banking affords such a scope for contrariety of opinions, that scarcely a dozen persons, who are thoroughly acquainted with it, can be found to agree exactly on every point. Whigs differ among themselves, as do members of other parties. But whoever asserts that the Whigs as a party are wedded to the present system of Banking, or that they are defenders of abuses in Banking or any thing else, is a reckless calumniator.

The Whig party has never really comprised less than one half the qualified electors of the United States. In the first year of its existence, without a national organization, or any definite plan of action, it polled 650,000 votes—exceeding by thousands the votes of its adversaries. In the late Presidential Election, it polled 730,203 votes, exclusive of South Carolina and Michigan. The elections of 1837 have already demonstrated that the Whigs are THE DEMOCRACY OF NUMBERS by 50,000 majority.

The Whigs will continue to contend for the Reform of existing abuses in Government, and the dismissal of incompetent public servants from the trusts which they have abused; the Retrenchment of the expenses of the Government, which have swelled from twelve millions per annum under Adams, to thirty-two millions under Jackson, and still more under Van Buren; the limitation of the powers of the Executive, now practically despotic; and the restoration of the era of good feeling, of contentment, of constitutional liberty, and of national prosperity. Freemen of America! these are our principles and objects—are they also yours? If Yea, evince it at the polls!

ECLIPSES.

Four Eclipses take place this year; two of the Sun and two of the Moon.

I. There will be an Eclipse of the Sun on the 25th of March, at 4h. 49m. in the afternoon, invisible. Moon's lat. 46m. 22s. south.

II. There will be an Eclipse of the Moon on the 9th of April, in the evening, visible. Beginning 7h. 34m. Middle, 9h. 1m. Ecliptical opposition, 9h. 9m. End, 10h. 28m. Duration, 2h. 54m. Quantity, 7¼ digits on the Moon's northern limb.

III. There will be an Eclipse of the Sun on Tuesday, September 18th, in the afternoon, visible and annular. Beginning, 3h. 16m. Ring forms, 4h. 34m. 45s. Eclipse nearest central, 4h. 36m. 10s. Ring breaks, 4h. 37m. 35s. Eclipse ends, 5h. 47m. Duration of the Ring, 2m. 50s. Duration of the Eclipse, 2h. 31m.

When the Eclipse is nearest central, the Moon's centre will be 1m. 3s. below the Sun's centre; and the breadth of the ring on the Sun's upper limb will be 2m. 14s., and on the lower limb only 8s.

IV. There will be an Eclipse of the Moon on the 3d of October, at 9h. 50m. in the morning, consequently invisible here.

HUMORS OF THE TIMES. (MAINLY SELECTED FROM THE LOUISVILLE JOURNAL.)

☞ The Globe says, that, although the times are apparently gloomy, "the country abounds in all the necessaries and luxuries of life." Blair pokes his head into the kitchen, and mistaking that for the country, thinks the whole land is filled with roast beef and drippings. We once heard of a similar case:—A traveller at a Pennsylvania hotel rose from his bed one night to examine the weather; but, instead of looking out upon the sky, thrust his head through the glass window of a cupboard—"Landlord!" cried the astonished man, "this is very singular weather; the night is as dark as Egypt, and smells of cheese."

☞ The Globe says, "No paper should be issued, without an adequate metallic basis." Indeed! The ten millions of Government shin-plasters are to be issued on the basis of a Treasury which has just failed for nine millions and is in debt besides over head and ears. This may be an "enlarged" basis, but what it is 'adequate" to passes our comprehension.

☞ "Gold and silver are disappearing from circulation. The people are in want of change."—GLOBE.

Ay; and the people will have change, and first of all a change of rulers. They are tired of shin-plaster domination.

☞ The Baltimore Patriot says, that "Van Burenism has not a foot of ground in Kentucky." That is not exactly correct. It tenants a little spot six feet long by two wide. May it rest in peace!

☞ 'CONSERVATIVE' RESOLUTION.—The late elections give evidence that some of the old Jackson men are animated by the spirit of the gentleman who lived in a bad neighborhood, and at last observed to a friend that he had resolved to change his quarters; "for," said he, "I have now given them a fair trial; I have been knocked down and robbed there once a month for the last three years, and I can bear it no longer."

☞ Why did Mr. Van Buren, in the opening of his Message, depart from the 'footsteps of his illustrious predecessor,' and omit the 'thanks to Almighty God' for the 'flourishing condition in which Providence had kept the nation?' Was he of opinion that the chief management of our affairs had been in other hands of late?

☞ Mr. Van Buren assumes that, by the present mode of collecting and disbursing the public revenue, it "passes twice through the hands of Executive officers." Quite a mistake. It invariably passes into them, but not always out of them.

☞ Isaac Hill's disciples of the New Hampshire legislature, lately resolved, that the present condition of the currency emphatically displays the wisdom and foresight of General Jackson! They ought to have added, that the present condition of the Treasury likewise evinces the great financial talent of Mr. Secretary Woodbury.

☞ The President called Congress together to take measures for the relief of the people. When assembled, the first measure he proposed was to relieve them from the receipt of ten millions of the surplus revenue. If he could but have contrived to relieve them of the rest of their goods and chattels, they would have been perfectly unencumbered.

☞ A commercial storm has just swept over this country, which has no National Bank, and over England, which has a National Bank. The currency and the credit of Great Britain have passed the ordeal unscathed, while those of this country are prostrate. Mr. Van Buren argues from these facts that a National Bank is good for nothing! Such logic would prove black white, and toryism the very best of Democracy.

☞ The members of Congress receive their compensation in gold and silver; the Revolutionary Pensioners are generally paid off in rags and shinplasters. It was hardly pretty for Congress to refuse to pass the Sub-Treasury Bill.

☞ The Administration insists that the States must rebuild the currency which itself has broken down. This is like the loafer who returned his neighbor's wheelbarrow. ☞ Swift, in his 'Tale of a Tub,' represents Lord Peter as ready to break the heads of his companions for not acknowledging a dry penny loaf to be a good quarter of mutton. To avoid all peril of this kind, we acknowledge that Treasury shinplasters are the very brightest and purest of gold and silver.

☞ The Times, a Van Buren journal, admits that 50,000 persons are out of employment in this city. What shall be done? We recommend a cure on the Homœopathic principle. Turn out 'the Author of the Letter to Sherrod Williams,' and his 50,000 office-holders, and things will come right again.

☞ Mr. Van Buren says in his Message: "The people are prone to expect too much of the Government." He bids fair to cure them of that propensity.

☞ Office-seeking is the great vice of the times. It is expected to cease altogether when the office-holders are made Pet Banks, and entrusted with all the hard money in the country.

☞ Solemn Truth.—'Sir,' said the Hon. John P. King, a Jackson and Van Buren Senator from Georgia, in his Speech on the Sub-Treasury Bill, 'more gray hairs have grown upon our republic during the last eight years than for forty preceding!'

☞ The difference between Tweedledum and Tweedledee, has exercised the ingenuity of many a son of Adam. The Philadelphia Herald and Sentinel has just discovered an entirely 'new and original one.' Tweedledum is Martin Van Buren carrying out the measures of General Jackson: Tweedledee is the measures of General Jackson carrying out (of the Presidency) Martin Van Buren.

Harison's majority.....3684.

[The Van Buren party have gained comparatively in some counties, owing to the operation of a local question—that of constitutional reform; the small counties, all Whig, being supposed averse to giving a much larger representation to Baltimore, Frederick, &c., in the State Legislature. The Whigs, however, have still 50 to 33 in the Assembly, the entire Senate, the Governor—in short, every thing, including a heavy popular majority. Where the National question overruled, as in Baltimore city, there is a gain to the Whig side.]

SOUTH CAROLINA.

[In the Election of 1836, this State voted for Willie P. Mangum of North Carolina for President, and John Tyler of Virginia for Vice-President. There is no Van Buren party here. Not a single vote was given for Van Buren in the Legislature—not a voice was raised for him in the public journals. The clear Whig majority in the State is probably not less than 30,000.]

[The regular State Election in Michigan takes place on the first Monday of November. The returns above for 1837 are of a Special Election for Member of Congress in July. The result of the regular Elcction is very doubtful.

☞These remarks apply substantially to ARKANSAS, where the regular Election is held in October. That of 1837 is not yet fully heard from.]
